Sudden Ending of War and Supplies Released Expected to Depress Market.

Retailers date the last sudden and dical jump in the prices of food com-odities back to just about a year ago.

An interesting point is that eities re-oring their wholesale prices show that he storekeeper pays for his eggs what be did a year ago, or even a trifle less.
The consumer, however, generally is obliged to pay 20 to 25 per cent, more.
Beef has taken a general rise, 12 to 33 per cent. Both ham and bucon have risen radically, although ham, which used to be the cheaper pound for bound by 25 per cent, is now much closer to scon, having risen everywhere just bout twice as rapidly.

Butter is the stellar ellinber of the list.

Suffer is the stellar climber of the list. New Yorkers are paying around 55 per ent. more for the better table grades han we did when Ludendooff's swan long was rehearsing and 1318 was cure—or else we are cating margarine to vegetable oil substitutes, and those are risen 10 per cent, at least. Butter in hicago is up 35 per cent, in Hoston core than 59 for the cheaper grades, in buildelphia 25, in Milwaukee 17 and in maha 46.

sewhere on this page will be found table showing the twelvementh's table showing the twelvementh's avenuent of the prices of twenty constitution in New York city. The figures to rather suggestive than definite dost of them were worked out by the Pederal Food Board's price fixing computers, and they were supposed to indicate ideeral Food Boards price fixing com-pilitee, and they were supposed to indi-ate fair prices for the marketing ousewife's guidance. As a matter of fact, such large scale concerns as the chain-store companies and some of the great wholesale and stall grocery houses were able to watch he fair price lists and undercut them on most items pretty consistently. thus distributed as other war expense and losses, including those on contract for munitions and other war materials are distributed.
"The Food Administration estimate that this loss will amount to $1,250,000,000. I assume that estimate is based of a contemplated loss of $1 a bushel o a larger crop than the average. This would be on the assumption that the world market price for wheat will drop to $1.25 a bushel. My judgment is that the drop will not be so great. In the first place, Russia formerly produce about one-lifts of the total wheat crothe world and exported one-fifth of total amount exported. Russia's production and exports have been great!

It is reasonable to assume that the production of wheat in Europe generally will be far under normal. It is also 6 reasonable to assume that the per capit consumption of wheat in Europe wi generally be in excess of normal because of the shortage of meat. These fact among others to some extent will urse the prospects for a very large surplu of wheat in America. I think the work price will be bigher than $1.75 a bushel and our losses as a result of the guarantee will be less than $1 a bushel.
"I think there should be a restoration of normal competitive trading as quickly as possible and at the same time maintain. tain our agreements entered into to obtain a war time production. I am in favor of carrying losses incident to munitions contracts and wartime ex penses food or munitions. I do not think such expenses should be borne Government stanus the losses the burden will be distributed to all classes through taxation."

terday and were to get more yesterday and again to-morrow. "The idea of the changed date," the wire continued, "Is to fill the packers with orders so that they will feel more like supporting the hogs than if their files were bare of orders. Another point is that the peace meeting at Versailles will have made some progress by the 28th. Hoover is a strong advocate of the 17th cent hog price, and this figure I expect to be maintained regardless of petitions mentioning Bolshevism, &c., as meritions mentioning Holshevism, &c., as Mr. Hoover, in Europe, knows much more about Holshevism than the petitioners here. Another argument in favor of the maintained hog price is the fact that the Government is contracting for beef for Pebruary at the highest hours of debate the Senate failed to figure yet recorded."

It was apparent at once that the deadlock of Friday night was broken and the agreement was quickly ratified Matter Settled for Present.

Mr. Dowling, in announcing the compromise, said:
"The matter is settled, at least for the matter is settled, at least for the present. The agreement which was reached resterday and the terms of which I telephoned to Gov. Smith, were reaffirmed this morning. The matter of detail regarding the putting of the agreement into effect has been compromised and the agreement goes into immediate effect, that I; to say, operations will be resumed to day and continue indefinitely. The plan does not make any reference to any particular house, but is effective to all concerns in either of the groups.

"The commission will continue in existence. There will be a meeting in this soffice on January Ts, when we will see how the agreement has worked Mean-office on January 18, when we will see how the agreement has worked Meanwhile, if any fracture appears, complaint will be made and the commission will get busy on it. If either add tries to put over any tricks, I will get out of the whole affair. In that case, the whole matter will be put up to the public and let inat—the court of last resort—act accordingly.

"Meetings of the commission, lacking any disturbing element which may force its dissolution, will be held on the 15th of each month. That is the programme decided upon this morning. The price of 16 cents is announced as the right to refuse public service. In a democratic state the only men ablie to govern are those who are obedient to the people. The new dovernment will not be a party one. We further declare that in order to succeed the Polish republic must be considered as an ally of the Allies.

"Our programme is: First, call a parliament: second, defend the frontiers: third, help the working classes: fourth, procure food and other supplies; fifth, rebuild the cotton and woolen mills; sixth, the regulation of finances and the procuring of internal and foreign loans; seventh, to establish order."

won an absolute victory, especially on the principle of the cost of production. The whole issue was one of cost of pro-duction. Men of the dairy industry were be oming discouraged, and we had to fight to determine whether the farm-ers would san their business or the dis-tributors dictate how it is to be run. If we did not win to-day many farmers would have gone out of business. We consider this decision has saved the dairy industry.
